

XM radio is the only radio signal that we can reliably receive in our office building. We rely on XM radio for our news and information throughout the day, and need local traffic and weather information also. XM Radio provides us a service that the local radio stations can't or won't offer.